Restored in Christ - Broken Hearts

* Opening Hymn "All Praise to Thee, My God, This Night" PH, #542

* Opening Litany (responsively)

One: After the fire has raged and the flames have died away and grown cold, nothing remains but ashes.

All: We are dust, and to dust we shall return.

One: After the hot passion of sin, after the cool calculation of evil, all that remains is brokenness and ashes.

All: We are dust, and to dust we shall return.

One: After the zeal for living has ebbed away and life has run its course, there is nothing left but ashes.

All: We are dust, and to dust we shall return.

One: But ashes are not the end. This Lenten season begins in ashes, but it will not end in ashes. We begin in dust, but we shall end in resurrection glory. Enter this season, then, with confidence and with hope: ashes are not the end.

Confession and Absolution

All: Lord, I do not like pain. I do not even like to be uncomfortable. I do not like the sorrow of heartbreak, the pangs of regret and the ache of broken relationships; and I do not like the honesty and humility that are needed to face this pain. Forgive me for the brokenness that I have caused. Forgive me for the brokenness that lies at the center of my heart. Make me whole again.

One: God knows your reality. He knows that you are not what you were created to be. He knows that you are broken. But he does not abandon you to brokenness and pain. Instead, he has taken your brokenness and pain and made it his own. May a true and repentive heart know the forgiveness of sin. Amen.

Imposition of Ashes

One: In times of great sorrow and heartache, God's people of old would wear their grief. With sackcloth and ashes their outward form reflected the reality of their hearts.

All: Brokenness cannot be hidden away.

One: Tonight we admit the brokenness of our hearts and we wear the sign of our brokenness: ashes.

*All who are able, PLEASE STAND

All: Our brokenness cannot be hidden away.

One: Yet we know that brokenness is only part of the story. There's more. The ashes trace the shape of the cross—the cross that removes our sin, heals our brokenness, and makes us whole.

All: Our brokenness is not forever; we are restored in the cross.

(As the ashes are traced on each forehead, Pastor Colleen will say, "You are broken, but in Christ you are made whole." And in response each person may say, "Thanks be to God! Amen.")

Closing Hymn "Jesu, Meines Lebens Leben"

Christ, the life of all the living,
Christ, the death of death, our foe,
Who, thyself for me once giving
To the darkest depths of woe:
Through thy suff'rings, death and merit
I eternal life inherit.
Thousand, thousand thanks shall be,
Dearest Jesus, unto thee.

Thou, ah! Thou, hast taken on thee
Bonds and stripes, a cruel rod;
Pain and scorn were heaped upon thee,
O thou sinless Son of God!
Thus didst thou my soul deliver
From the bonds of sin forever.
Thousand, thousand thanks shall be,
Dearest Jesus, unto thee.

Benediction
